"A Legend of Th'Alexis (Secrets of Prophecy)" is the story of a young warrior and prince who sought to unveil the secrets of a prophecy that promised salvation to humankind—a tool to free man from the evil hold of the evil and vengeful goddess Gehenna, who in alliance with the god of war had seized hold of heaven and had all glorious beings incarcerated in the depths of the fire valley. She took the source of the Chief god's power and condemned man to damnation.

Aided by a wizard and an elf girl with whom he fell in love, this warrior prince is surrounded by challenges, mysteries, war, and emotion. Yet he must conquer his worst fears for a lot depended on his triumph, for he held the true key to deliverance. And in the elf tongue, 'Asilek' means the 'Deliverer' of prophecy.
