

(PRLEAP.COM) "Flo: A Very Special Budgie," a new book by Joan M. Wright, has been released by Dorrance Publishing Co., Inc.

Flo lived in a beautiful cage surrounded by toys and fancy seeds. When her owner died, Flo was taken away and placed in an aviary with lots of other budgies. It took her a long time to settle down. After all, she was special and had won prizes in budgerigar shows, had a ring on her leg and felt that she did not belong in an aviary with ordinary birds.

One day her ring caught on a twig and she shrilled for help. Fred, the leader of the budgie choir, came to her rescue, and was so taken with her lovely voice that he suggested she join his choir. Gradually Flo settled down, and the aviary, once a lonely place for her, became her new home.

About the Author:Joan M. Wright immigrated to Canada from England in the 1950s. She graduated from the University of Toronto with a degree in Library Science and worked as a librarian in the Toronto Reference Library. Taking early retirement, she continued hobbies of art classes, children's book illustration and gardening. She lives in Toronto with two dogs and two budgies.

"Flo: A Very Special Budgie" is a 42-page paperback with a retail price of $17.00. The ISBN is 978-1-4349-2546-6. It was published by RoseDog Books, an imprint of Dorrance Publishing Co., Inc of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. For more information, or to request a review copy, please go to our virtual pressroom at www.dorrancepressroom.com or our online bookstore at www.rosedogbookstore.com