

STATEN ISLAND, N.Y., Oct. 1, 2013 /PRNewswire/ -- /Continental Who's Who/ -- Margaret K. Mazzola

MPA,CMT is recognized by Continental Who's Who as a Pinnacle Professional in the field of Healthcare as a result of her role as a Retired Associate Administrator with Staten Island University Hospital.

Margaret has spent 15 years in the field of Healthcare Administration, amassing the skills and knowledge needed to be a successful Administrator. Throughout her career, Margaret worked directly in the areas of Public Administration; Managing Projects; Interacting with Physicians; Monitoring Policy and Compliance Standards; Participating in Grant Applications and Renewals; as well as Projects and Emergency Management.

Working her way into the Administration sector, Margaret began her career at Staten Island University Hospital, where she served as a case manager from 1995 through 1997. She was promoted to a position as Administrative Assistant to the Emergency Department Director at the same Hospital. In 2001, her accomplishments prompted the Management Team to promote her once again to Administrative Associate to the Chief Medical Officer at the Hospital. As a result of her dedication and years of service, Margaret was honored with the 15 Year Employment Pin and Certificate of Appreciation Award from Staten Island University Hospital.

Since her retirement, Margaret regularly volunteers with Teach Reading to Youth, Incorporated; Staten Island University Auxiliary; Project Hospitality; and Big Brother and Big Sister of America, NY.

Margaret earned her Master of Public Administration, with a concentration in Health Care Management from Long Island University, and also holds a Bachelor's Degree from St. John's University

As well as being a Certified Medical Transcriber.

About Us

Continental Who's Who has become one of the most respected and trusted publishers around the globe. We spotlight thousands of professional individuals and organizations each year who "stand-out" in their specific field. Included are executives and officials in business, science, education, philanthropy, religion, government, the fourth estate, finance, law, engineering, authors, the musically talented elite as well as numerous additional industries.

Our mission at Continental Who's Who is to provide an exclusive internationally recognized world-class forum where members can create social, professional and business relationships. We provide resources, information and represent an atmosphere and opportunity to network, consult, showcase, educate, and empower, allowing for establishing new business relations to increase future success. We are committed to delivering the highest quality service to all our established members.

Please visit us at www.continentalwhoswho.com

Contact: Robert Basilin, 516-825-5634 pr@continentalwhoswho.com

SOURCE Continental Who's Who

RELATED LINKS <http://www.continentalwhoswho.com>