

Chicago Author Publishes New Book of Inspirational Poetry

Written by Australian Business

(PRLEAP.COM) "In the Spirit," a new book by Bertram Bowen, has been released by RoseDog Books. "In The Spirit" is Bertram Bowens's connection with God and the spirit of his wife, Cecelia, and brother, Acey.

"I love You too Kid" describes the loving relationship between brothers. It will get you "in the spirit." Simple words and rhymes create beautiful and thought provoking poems. "While you are here" describes a visit from the Lord so you can take care of Him in your final hour. "On the kitchen Door" shares Bertram's memory of childhood when he saw a vision of the Virgin Mary on the kitchen door where he lived. "Miracle of the Balloons" is, simply put, true and personal: Bertram's wife Cecelia's "visited" via balloons on June 3, 2008. Balloons were sent to the sky and, as they went up, they formed a perfect "C" for Cecelia

"In The Spirit" is Bertram's tribute to the past and present and should be read by anyone who has love for God and family. "In The Spirit" will put you "in the spirit."
