

SEATTLE, Oct. 22, 2013 /PRNewswire/ -- Homes on the Sound, a Seattle based real estate company is using LED lights to advertise real estate for Waterfront and Water View Homes. The company helps homeowners with buying and selling homes in the Seattle and Tacoma areas.

When contacted, a representative of the company said, "LED displays are simply perfect when it comes to drawing attention to boat traffic for luxury waterfront and Puget Sound water view homes." He further added, "Homes on the Sound is sometimes referred to as the H.O.T.S. Team. We are going to be the number one Waterfront Real Estate Company in the Puget Sound area, with a very honest and hard-working team of agents."

According to the sources, the owner - David Berg brought the company above the competition to utilize LED signs as a mean to draw attention to the homes. The company has several members in the team including Debbie Snodgrass, Partner, Attorney Ness, Jolee Helling and David Berg to name of a few.
