GLENCOE, Ill., Oct. 25, 2013 /PRNewswire/ -- Patricia B. Cantor is recognized by Continental Who's Who as a Pinnacle Professional in the field of Government Services as a result of her role as Supervisor with New Trier Township.

New Trier Township was established in 1850, and currently serves the 56,000 residents in the Illinois villages of Wilmette, Kenilworth, Winnetka, and Glencoe, plus portions of Glenview and Northfield.

The Township strives to provide leadership, advocacy and resources to benefit the physical, mental and social well-being of Township residents through the funding of social services and programs; advocacy for property taxpayers, and resident services. As a resident of Glencoe for over 35 years, Patricia has a deep insight into the community and enjoys working with others and speaking to residents in public speaking venues.

In addition to her supervisory role with New Trier Township, Patricia is a member of the National Association for Professional Women, and was featured as Woman of the Year. She was listed in the NAPW Legacy Registry for 2012. She was affiliated with the Jewish Children's Bureau, where she was elected President. Patricia served on the Board of Directors for the Jewish
