

(PRLEAP.COM) "God's Plan for Peons," a new book by Susan D. Criddle, has been released by Dorrance Publishing Co., Inc. "I am the least in my father's house."

These are the words that Gideon uttered (Judges 6:15, Holy Bible, KJV) when God commissioned him to lead the Israelites to war against the Midianites who, at that time, oppressed them. No matter how little he thought of himself, Gideon willingly served and followed God, who in turn assured him that He will be with him throughout the battle. True to His promise, God helped Gideon and his 300 soldiers in defeating the enemies and saving Israel.

Others are no different from Gideon. They love God, true, but they often compare themselves to others whom they think are a lot better than them in many aspects to the point that they doubt that they can perform great things for Him. But God sees things in a different way, and Susan Criddle helps in pointing that out in her book God's Plan for Peons.

In fulfilling her role as a wife, mother, teacher, and faithful Christian, Criddle, in one of her introspections, had used the story of Gideon as an inspiration in finding her purpose in the will of God. Now happy in her role despite the challenges that goes with it, she imparts that while it's difficult to have the right perspective on how God assigns our own place in the fulfillment of His will, we can be certain that through His guidance, we can be good and faithful servants-accomplishing things beyond our own capabilities.

About the Author: Susan Criddle is a graduate of Bachelor of Science in Education at the Louisiana Baptist University. She currently teaches high school students in Tri-State Christian Academy. A native of Maryland, she is a member of Crossroads Bible Church in Elkton, where she lends her services as a drama director.
