

(PRLEAP.COM) "National Flag Design Studies of Primary Design Elements, Colors, Symbols," a new book by Hank Gardner, has been released by Dorrance Publishing Co., Inc.

The author, Hank Gardner, has tried to take a series of "snapshots" to describe flags at different time periods, their basic features, and then to compare these over time to see how they have changed. He considers these as the first such studies ever to quantify this information. His study was based on original observations. He believes that there is something here for the beginner, the intermediate, and the advanced vexillologist/flag enthusiast.

About the Author:Hank Gardner is a native of Franklin, Virginia. He has an undergraduate degree from the University of North Carolina in Chapel Hill, NC, and two graduate degrees (MLS and MAEd) from East Carolina University in Greenville, NC. He has loved flags and collected/studied them since early childhood.

"National Flag Design Studies of Primary Design Elements, Colors, Symbols" is a 28-page paperback with a retail price of $8.00. The ISBN is 978-1-4349-2535-0. It was published by Dorrance Publishing Co., Inc of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.
