

(PRLEAP.COM) "God Can Bring Us through All Things," a new book by Betty Williams, has been released by Dorrance Publishing Co., Inc.

In this memoir of overcoming fear and trusting your faith, Betty Williams shares her intimate and harrowing life stories to show how God helped her overcome each obstacle and rewarded her for her trust in Him. From the stress of unemployment to health scares, from fears of the dark to having to evacuate during Hurricane Katrina, Williams offers insight from the Bible and how such wisdom can be translated to life's daily struggles. "God Can Bring Us Through All Things: Trust Him" is a heartfelt, spiritual guide in finding comfort in God and in the opportunity he provides to help you rise above to achieve your goals.

About the Author: Betty Williams is a retired Louisiana elementary school teacher who taught in the public school system until 2005 when Hurricane Katrina struck the gulf coast. Before the hurricane, she also taught Bible school and prepared students for First Communion and Confirmation. Williams hopes that, through learning about her own trials, readers will put trust in God to restore the losses in their lives and recognize He knows what is best in every situation. A current resident of Spring, Texas, Williams plans to return home to Louisiana in the near future.

"God Can Bring Us through All Things" is a 30-page paperback with a retail price of $8.00. The ISBN is 978-1-4349-0137-7. It was published by Dorrance Publishing Co., Inc of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. For more information, or to request a review copy, please go to our virtual pressroom at www.dorrancepressroom.com or our online bookstore at www.dorrancebookstore.com