

(PRLEAP.COM) "Amanda's Crush," a new book by E.L. Rogers, has been released by Dorrance Publishing Co., Inc.

Amanda Gorely is a sportswriter for one the country's largest newspapers. She is a big woman, to say the least. And she has this amazing crush on Mike Hall, the volleyball coach for one of the teams she is covering in Northeast Ohio. Through both their jobs, they learned of each other's existence and became buddies. Unfortunately for Amanda, this developed into head-over-heels feelings for the hunky coach, something unreciprocated by him, which leads to a poor judgment on her part when she learns of the coach's flirting in a bar through a colleague, which leads to her writing scathing letters about Mike's character to his superintendent and athletic director, which leads to Mike's character and professionalism being questioned by them, which leaves Mike vowing to avenge his mistreatment to the ends of the Earth. Oh, what has poor Amanda gotten herself into?
