All over the world many are searching for lasting peace and fulfillment, rich and poor alike. Who would have thought that the answer has been here? In Truth we are free now. In this new nonfiction book From His View "I" Am Free Now, the author simply shares some of the spiritual insights she has gained into effective prayer, marriage, relationships, money, work, education, health, fear, love, safety, happiness and true freedom since studying Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy together with her Bible.

Roberts' work is an invitation for all willing and sincere truth seekers who are reaching out for God. This is not an intellectual book. It is to be read with a humble heart that is ready to be led to the Truth that makes us free as Christ Jesus promised. In her work, Roberts gives practical examples of how a life can be transformed when one reaches out to God for the understanding of man's true self.

About the Author: Florence A. Roberts grew up in a religious family, in a small seaside town in Ghana, West Africa. She lived in England where she received her medical nursing, midwifery and public health nursing certificates. In the United States she has earned a higher degree in nursing and law.

After her father's remarkable recovery from a stroke through Christian Science healing, Florence embarked on the study of this healing Truth in the 90s. She has since joined the healing ministry of Christian Science, as a Christian Science nurse. Applying her spiritual insights from her study to her everyday life has given her a new view of herself, others and a transforming perspective on life.
