

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Feb. 27, 2014 /PRNewswire/ -- CSX Corporation (NYSE: CSX) today announced that it has been named one of the World's Most Admired Companies in 2014, according to a survey published by FORTUNE Magazine. The comprehensive rankings were released today.

In 2013 CSX achieved an industry leading safety performance, as well as record-high customer satisfaction, revenues and earnings per share from continuing operations, all while taking forward-leaning actions to position its rail network to serve the nation's freight transportation needs for many years to come.

The company's vision is to be the safest, most progressive North American railroad, relentless in the pursuit of customer and employee excellence. CSX is guided by core values that focus on customer satisfaction, employee engagement, a culture of safety and a commitment to care for the environment and the communities it serves.

The FORTUNE World's Most Admired Companies survey, conducted annually, measures corporate reputation based on attributes ranging from social responsibility and innovation to long-term investment value and product quality. The World's Most Admired Companies list is voted on by executives, directors and analysts across all industries.

About CSX CSX, based in Jacksonville, Florida, is a premier transportation company.
