San Diego Uptown Neighborhood Celebrates Local Breweries, Artists, and Restaurants

San Diego, CA: Friday, March 28, 2014 from 5-9PM, The Bankers Hill Business Group, in collaboration with the San Diego Brewers guild, will be celebrating the 2nd annual Bankers Hill Art and Craft Beer Festival. The historical Abbey building will play host to 15 of San Diego's leading breweries, some of the neighborhoods finest restaurants, and art installations from world renowned Bankers Hill artists.

On the rising popularity of the neighborhood, co-founder of the Bankers Hill Business Group, Jake Sutton, said, "The Bankers Hill neighborhood and business district is growing fast and we're excited to be hosting the Art and Craft Beer Festival for the second year in a row. It's such an amazing showcase of all the talent that we have within our neighborhood."

To encompass the true historic quality of the Bankers Hill neighborhood, the Art and Craft Beer Festival will be held at the historic Abbey building, embodying the Spanish Colonial Revival architecture boasting a dozen stained glass windows, and is topped with a triumphant statue of Gabriel blowing his horn. Beer from nationally renowned breweries will be served along side food provided by local Bankers Hill restaurants to fully showcase the talents of nearby businesses while guests gather around art installations created by local artists.

Tickets are now available at: www.brownpapertickets.com/event/584637
