(PRLEAP.COM) "Just Thoughts: Looking at Man's Whole Self," a new book by Kenneth Palmer, has been released by Dorrance Publishing Co., Inc.

Just Thoughts is about the fears, desires, and joys of humans and their conscience. It shows that the physical attributes of man cannot exist without his spirituality.

These verses were written as a representation of Kenneth's feelings, living as "displaced water at the bottom of a waterfall." It brings forth his private perceptions of life, along with those who surround him daily-family, friend, or foe.

The perfumed essence of the lines is instructive of how men should behave within God's arm. He is the loving father. The words dig through the inner soul and shows its central message that God is true salvation.

"Just Thoughts: Looking at Man's Whole Self" is a 48-page paperback with a retail price of $8.00. The ISBN is 978-1-4809-0557-3. It was published by Dorrance Publishing Co., Inc of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.
