(PRLEAP.COM) April 13, 2014 - Popular cookbook author and artist Jody McFerren returns to Vivid Boutique in Decatur on May 3rd from 5:00PM until 8:00PM with delicious treats from his book, FundaMENUS An Upscale Approach To Affordable Entertaining, as part of Vivid's Saturday Soirées in Spring.

McFerren is becoming a media darling having been featured on 11Alive's Atlanta & Co., Your Carolina With Jack And Kimberly, The Ms. Boss Show and several magazines. FundaMENUS is famed for its mouth-watering recipes and guide to elegant tablescapes with a professional caterer's secrets for saving time and money.

McFerren, who has created art for CNN and PEZ Candy, Inc., is known also for creating the as yet unpublished Back In St. Olaf book about Rose Nylund, Betty White's character in the 80s television show The Golden Girls.

Vivid's Saturday events are a prelude to Mother's Day offering customers charming gift ideas in a delightful ambiance. Cocktails and hors d'oeuvres are served and different artists are featured each week.

Vivid Boutique is located at 133 East Court Square, Suite B, in Decatur. Autographed copies of FundaMENUS ~ An Upscale Approach To Affordable Entertaining may be reserved by calling Vivid at 404-371-5181, or via their website. Learn more about Jody McFerren by visiting his website or on facebook.
