

South African Author Publishes New Autobiography "Make It Real"

Written by Australian Business

(PRLEAP.COM) "Make It Real," a new book by Vuzo Adeleke, has been released by Dorrance Publishing Co., Inc.

What could possibly go wrong in a house presided over by a doting father and a loving mother? In "Make It Real," by Vuzo Adeleke, we can see the kind of stigma people pay for after going through childhood scarred for life by physical, mental, and sexual torture from the people relied upon to look after them.

Despite being blessed by an almost perfect set of parents, the author describes the silent horror of living in a house with a vicious nanny and a perverted Christian minister. No wonder then that it took a momentous development in her life before she could regain the trust and the mind to gain the life befitting her own outlook.

"Make It Real" shows us what could go wrong in a typical upwardly mobile, aspiring family, and the latent effects of sinister people upon what could be our own children.

About the Author:Vuzo Adeleke was born and raised in Durban, South Africa. She studied education and graduated with Primary Teacher's degree and pursued further diploma in Education Specializing in School Library and Media Science. She is currently employed as a primary school teacher head of department in the foundation phase. She lives in her hometown of Durban.

"Make It Real" is a 98-page paperback with a retail price of $14.00. The ISBN is 978-1-4349-1275-6. It -was published by Dorrance Publishing Co., Inc of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.
