

Foamology publishes Craft Foam Decorating Solutions Infographic

Written by Australian Business

(PRLEAP.COM) July 1, 2014 - Whether you are looking for a way to add a more personal touch to your living space or looking for a simple craft solution, Foamology has the right craft foam to fit all of your project needs. The company has recently published an infographic, highlighting their craft foam's affordability and versatility.

Foamology's self-adhesive craft foam makes for an easy solution to fill empty wall space. Foamology's soft design foam is available in a variety of different sizes and cut patterns, making your foam crafting project easier than ever.

In addition to its versatile design, Foamology's craft foam provides a budget friendly design solution as opposed to the cost of framed artwork. While framed artwork costs can quickly add up, design foam allows you to create customizable art solutions, saving you money and allowing you to add your own personality or match your home's décor. Foamology's soft design foam can be used in a wide range of projects, making it easy to create your own personal foam design to add some life to any living space. From wall tiling, memo boarding and soft walls, Foamology's decorative craft foam can be a great addition to any home or office space.

Discover just what the features of soft design craft foam can bring to your home or office by viewing the infographic at <http://foamology101.com/craft-foam-decorating-solutions/> .

Foamology offers a variety of foam products to meet all of your household needs. From design, cushion, acoustic or utility foam, Foamology's craft foam is the number one source to make your home special. Learn more about craft foam or find some design inspiration at <http://foamology101.com/>