

FireZone in Chicago launches first Firefighter-Based Team Building Program

Written by Australian Business

September 18, 2014 - FireZone's launch of Firehouse Team Building is set to be the first firefighter-based team building program in the country. The Program features real-life rescue scenarios and activities taught by real firefighters, emphasizing strategy, communication and fun.