

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla., Sept. 26, 2013 /PRNewswire-USNewswire/ -- TroyGramling.com, a weekly television show featuring Potential Church's lead pastor, Troy Gramling, now holds the 11:30am time slot on NBC, the oldest major broadcast network in the United States. The program will have the opportunity to minister to millions of hurting individuals and families who are desperately searching for hope.

"We love partnering with local and national TV stations to bring a message of hope, and help people reach their God potential," said Troy Gramling.

Following Joel Osteen's time slot on NBC, TroyGramling.com will have the opportunity to expand its reach, delivering a simple message that has the potential to transform people's lives like never before.

TroyGramling.com first aired on PAX in March 2005 as a TV show called, "Influence." It became the highest rated show in its time slot. Two name changes and three years later, the show began broadcasting on FOX, becoming the second-highest viewed program behind Joel Osteen

. A unique prayer line was also birthed in May of 2011, allowing viewers to call in live and receive prayer for whatever challenges they were facing. Dillon from Florida

, who did not disclose his surname, said: "I have been born again and appreciate how Troy has changed my life through his teachings. I went from depression and attempted suicide, to the happiest man on earth. Jesus saved me, and you changed my life."

Last September, TroyGramling.com also started broadcasting on the American Armed Forces Network reaching over one million troops and their families stationed in 175 countries around the world. By leveraging the power of television, TroyGramling.com has the opportunity to pour into the lives of people who are desperately searching for answers that are relevant to their everyday lives, in a way that's consistent with the Bible.

Pastor Troy Gramling has led Potential Church, a fast-growing, multi-site church, to an average weekly attendance of over 12,000 people across seven campuses (three national and four international), with the upcoming addition of an eighth campus in New York City. He is fueled by his passion and burden to partner with people to reach their God potential, as they connect with God, become like Christ and influence the world around them. Gramling excels in leadership development and is well known for his extreme creativity in designing unexpected worship and teaching experiences. For more information, visit www.potentialchurch.com
