"The Sotheby's Autumn Sales Event provided a unique opportunity to attract foreign investment to Marin real estate. To facilitate that we created a bilingual magazine with information on the Marin County lifestyle and property descriptions translated into Chinese," said Bill Bullock, co-owner and President of Decker Bullock Sotheby's International Realty – the Marin affiliate for the global realty Brand. "We've established networks to increase visibility for future real estate transactions between Marin and other Pacific Rim countries."

"This event provided a forum for our network to interact with each other, potential Asian buyers and Auction House executives and clientele," said Philip White, president and chief executive officer, Sotheby's International Realty Affiliates LLC. "We are proud to offer our network members the opportunity to take part in this important yearly sales event."

Select Marin properties showcased in Hong Kong included several prominent Belvedere, Tiburon and Ross homes, including 1 Cliff Road, 101 Belvedere Avenue, 255 Golden Gate Avenue, 8 Crest Road, 125 Belvedere Avenue, 339 Golden Gate Avenue, 99 Sugarloaf Drive, 604 Ridge Road, 63 Norman Way, and 11 Circle Drive.
