

LAKE FOREST, Calif., Oct. 24, 2013 /PRNewswire/ -- In honor of National Adoption Month, November 2013

, Adoption Network Law Center, a provider of professional adoption services to Adoptive Parents nationwide, is running a pro bono adoption services contest with the intentions of giving back to the community and raising adoption awareness.

Submissions for the contest will be accepted from October 24th to November 15th. Contest entrants are required to submit all required documents and photos in an email to adoption@adoptionnetwork.com

before the deadline for a chance to be selected as the recipients of pro bono adoption services. After Adoption Network Law Center reviews the contest submissions, the winner will be chosen and announced on November 23

rd

, National Adoption Day.

Last year's contest winners, David and Melissa of Tennessee, were high school sweethearts, married for 19 years, who had been trying to adopt for 4 years.

Kristin A.F. Yellin

, Chief Counsel of Adoption Network Law Center, made the call to David and Melissa to tell them they had been selected right before the holiday. According to Yellin, "We were thrilled to have the opportunity to give back to the community and raise awareness of National Adoption Month and we were so excited for the opportunity to help fulfill David and Melissa's dreams of becoming parents."

In March 2013, David and Melissa received a call from Adoption Network Law Center about an adoption opportunity of a little boy that had just been born; they accepted and welcomed their long awaited son into their family. In July 2013, David, Melissa and their son, officially became a forever family with the finalization of their adoption.
