NEW YORK, Oct. 24, 2013 /PRNewswire/ -- Morgan & Morgan announces that it is investigating potential legal claims against the board of directors of Cole Real Estate Investments, Inc. ("Cole" or the "Company") (COLE) regarding possible breaches of fiduciary duty and other violations of law related to the Company's entry into an agreement to be acquired by American Realty Capital Properties, Inc. ("American Realty") in a transaction, including debt, valued at approximately $11.2 billion.

Under the terms of the proposal, public shareholders of Cole will receive $13.82 or 1.0929 shares of American Realty common stock for each share of Cole common stock they own.

If you own shares of Cole and want more information about the Cole takeover investigation , please contact George Pressly, Esq.
at 1(800) 631-6234 or email George at AskGeorge@morgansecuritieslaw.com
.

Our investigation concerns possible breaches of fiduciary duty and other violations of law by Cole's Board of Directors for not acting in the best interest of the Company's shareholders' in connection with the sale process.

Morgan & Morgan is one of the nation's largest 200 law firms. In addition to securities fraud , the firm also practices in the areas of antitrust, personal injury, consumer protection, overtime, and product liability. All of the Firm's legal endeavors are rooted in its core mission: provide investor and consumer protection and always fight "for the people."

Attorney advertising. Prior results do not guarantee a similar outcome.

Contact:Morgan & MorganPeter Safirstein, Esq.28 West 44th StreetSuite 2001New York, NY 100361-800-631-6234
info@morgansecuritieslaw.com

SOURCE Morgan & Morgan

RELATED LINKS http://www.securitieslawfirm.com