PITTSBURGH, Oct. 25, 2013 /PRNewswire/ -- Education Management Corporation (NASDAQ: EDMC), a leading provider of post-secondary education, announced today that Edward H. West, president and CEO, and Mick J. Beekhuizen , executive vice president and CFO, are scheduled to participate in the J.P. Morgan Ultimate Services Investor Conference in New York City on Wednesday, Nov. 13, 2013 at 11:30 a.m. Eastern Time .

Interested parties can access a live webcast of the presentation on the Investor Relations section of the Education Management website (www.edmc.edu). An archive of the webcast and a copy of the presentation will also be available on the Investor Relations section of the company's website (www.edmc.edu).

About Education ManagementEducation Management (www.edmc.edu), with approximately 132,000 students as of October 2012 , is among the largest providers of post-secondary education in North America , based on student enrollment and revenue, with a total of 110 locations in 32 U.S. states and Canada. We offer academic programs to our students through campus-based and online instruction, or through a combination of both. We are committed to offering quality academic programs and continuously strive to improve the learning experience for our students. Our educational institutions offer students the opportunity to earn undergraduate and graduate degrees and certain specialized non-degree diplomas in a broad range of disciplines, including design, media arts, health sciences, psychology and behavioral sciences, culinary, fashion, business, education, legal and information technology.

This press release includes forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements typically contain words such as "anticipates," "believes," "estimates," "expects," "intends" or similar words indicating that future outcomes are not known with certainty and are subject to risk factors that could cause these outcomes to differ significantly from those projected. Forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements related to the company's future operating and financial performance, and include statements regarding expected enrollment, revenue, expense levels, capital expenditures and earnings. Any such forward-looking statements involve risk and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from any future results encompassed within the forward-looking statements. Some of the factors that could cause actual results to differ materially include, but are not limited to: changes in the overall U.S. or global economy; changes in enrollment or student mix; our ability to maintain eligibility to participate in Title IV programs; increased or unanticipated legal and regulatory costs; success of cost-cutting initiatives and growth strategies; changes in accreditation standards; the implementation of new operating procedures for our fully online programs; government and regulatory changes including revised interpretations of regulatory requirements that affect the postsecondary education industry; new programs and operational changes implemented in response to the "gainful employment" financial metrics; the potential impact of the draft "gainful employment" regulation issued by the U.S. Department of Education on August 30, 2013; and other factors discussed in our filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including those identified in the "Risk Factors" section of our Annual Report on Form 10-K and our Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q. Past results of Education Management are not necessarily indicative of its future results. Education Management does not undertake any obligation to update any forward-looking statements, except as required by securities law.

FOR: Education Management Corporation

Investor Contact:

Media Contact:

John Iannone

Chris Hardman

Director of Investor Relations

VP of Strategic Communications

(412) 995-7727

(412) 995-7187

SOURCE Education Management Corporation

RELATED LINKS http://www.edmc.edu