

BETHESDA, Md., Jan. 8, 2014 /PRNewswire/ -- Norman W. Kamerow, CLU, ChFC is recognized by Continental Who's Who as a Pinnacle Professional in the field of Finance as a result of his role as Senior Vice President and Former Chairman and Co-Founder of Capital Financial Group. Capital Financial Group is proud to announce their upcoming 65th year in business in December of 2013.

With nearly 65 years of professional experience in finance, Norman specializes in the areas of administration; business operations; business insurance benefits; and personal estate planning. Throughout his illustrious career, Norman has been an invited speaker at four MDRT annual meetings on various subjects from executive compensation to estate analysis. In addition to the MDRT engagements, he has been a panel member and lecturer at many national insurance and estate planning gatherings, meetings, and seminars.

Norman is currently a member of the Washington DC Estate Planning Council and the National Association of Insurance and Financial Advisors. He is a Life Member of the Million Dollar Round Table; Fellow of the Life Underwriter Training Council; and served as the Former President of the National Association of Life Underwriters, DC. He previously served on the Board of Directors of both the Financial Planning Association and Estate Planning Councils.

As a result of his vast professional success, Norman has been honored with the Edmund Zalinsky Distinguished Service Award and the Bernard L. Wilner Memorial Award, the highest honor bestowed by the Washington DC Association of Insurance and Financial Advisors. He was also named MONY National Man of the Year and earned the Paul S. Mills Scholarship Award of the American Society.

Throughout his educational career, Norman earned a Master of Science in Financial Service as well as a ChFC Degree from The American College. He holds additional certification as a Chartered Life Underwriter.
