ABOUT SGD HOLDINGS, LTD.: SGD Holdings, Ltd. (SGDH). In 1989, Eco Paper, Inc.

traveled to Costa Rica and began the transformation away from tree used products and created a way to use post-consumer and agricultural waste as paper using no chemicals, less water, and inks made from vegetable oil and soy. Less harmful to the environment and petroleum free, Banana paper was born. Eco Paper, Inc. and Costa Rica Natural Paper now produce 100%, tree-free, acid-free, eco natural paper and paper products from all natural fibers. We use fibers from banana, coffee, hemp, lemon and other exotic tropical agro-industrial wastes, thereby reducing the need of destroying our trees around the world.

Product Mission: We make, distribute, and sell only the finest environmental papers. We are continually committed to the use of wholesome natural ingredients, and we promote business practices that respect humanity, Earth, and the environment. We strive to minimize, and eventually counteract, any negative impact on the environment.

With the respect of all that surrounds us, Eco Paper and our natural sustainable banana paper products use the best available, least impactful technology to create for you, the consumer an environmentally friendly product that we all can be proud of.
