

Jazz Degustation + The Cellar Jazz Jam

Written by Press Release

Sydney 26 August 2013. Thursday nights are getting a jazzy makeover down at The Spice Cellar, drawing on some of its old soul by reviving shades of its former incarnation as well-known jazz spot and cigar bar, the Winebanc. Although smoking laws may have ousted the cigars, the sunken cellar located on Elizabeth St, still oozes the charm and attraction of a popular jazz speakeasy minus the smoke.

Kicking off from 5th September, The Spice Cellar's Friday night hit, DJ Degustation, is expanding to Thursdays from 7pm-10pm but with a twist, it's a

Jazz Degustation

with our some of our favourite DJs dusting off their Jazz vinyl to deliver the soundtrack of the early session. Hard to beat the combination of tapas, wine and some sweet sweet jazz. True to their ethos of delivering unique forward thinking entertainment, the Spice Cellar's lounge room style venue plays the perfect host. The Jazz Degustation is $55 per head for a 5 course hand-picked selection from their food and drink menu. All your senses will be stimulated as our DJ takes you on a jazz filled musical journey along with sampling tasty tapas, each course delivered with a matching beverage. A perfect warm up for the hosted by acclaimed bassist Phil Stack starting at 10pm and carrying on later in to the night. The Jam will feature Phil and handpicked guests playing live jazz with things getting hotter as the night progresses with musicians dropping in ad hoc and to create the perfectly improvised jam, every week unique and full of surprises.

Live Cellar Jazz Jam

7-10pm JAZZ DEGUSTATION w/ DJ Andy Webb

The Jazz Degustation will be hosted by DJ Andy Webb from September. Once a drummer, now a revolver of discs, Andy spins groovy passages of disco, funk, psychedelic and deep house tunes. The records he's released on his Death Strobe and Disco Delicious labels have been loved and jockeyed by cool people like Erol Alkan, Todd Terje, Greg Wilson, The Revenge, Giles Peterson and Andrew Weatherall.
