

NEW YORK--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Pomerantz Grossman Hufford Dahlstrom & Gross LLP has filed a class action lawsuit against Tower Group International Ltd. (“Tower” or the “Company”) (NASDAQ:TWGP) and certain of its officers. The class action, filed in United States District Court, Southern District of New York, and docketed under 13-cv-6181, is on behalf of a class consisting of all persons or entities who purchased or otherwise acquired securities of Tower between May 9, 2011 and August 7, 2013 both dates inclusive (the “Class Period”). This class action seeks to recover damages against the Company and certain of its officers and directors as a result of alleged violations of the federal securities laws pursuant to Sections 10(b) and 20(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 10b-5 promulgated thereunder.

If you are a shareholder who purchased Tower securities during the Class Period, you have until October 21, 2013 to ask the Court to appoint you as Lead Plaintiff for the class. Tower, headquartered in Hamilton, Bermuda, through its subsidiaries, underwrites insurance and reinsurance products in Bermuda, the United States, and London markets. The Company provides commercial, personal, and specialty insurance and reinsurance products.

The Complaint alleges that throughout the Class Period, Defendants made materially false and misleading statements regarding the Company’s business, operational and compliance policies. Specifically, Defendants made false and/or misleading statements and/or failed to disclose that: (i) defendants were improperly accounting for the Company’s loss reserves; (ii) defendants were improperly accounting for the Company’s good will and tax accounts; (iii) the Company lacked the necessary internal controls over financial reporting; and, (iv) as a result the Company’s financial statements were deficient and misleading at all relevant times.
