

NEW ORLEANS--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Former Attorney General of Louisiana, Charles C. Foti, Jr., Esq., a partner at the law firm of Kahn Swick & Foti, LLC (“KSF”), announces that KSF has commenced an investigation into Dish Network Corp. (“Dish”) (Nasdaq: DISH).

The investigation concerns Dish’s bid for LightSquared Inc. (“LightSqaured”). According to recent articles, the LightSquared deal may deliver hundreds of millions of dollars of personal profits to Dish’s Chairman, Charlie Ergen. A Dish director resigned in recent weeks, purportedly in connection with a disagreement over Dish’s handling of the bid for LightSquared and a potential conflict of interest with regard to Mr. Ergen.

KSF’s investigation is focusing on whether Dish’s officers and/or directors breached their fiduciary duties to Dish’s shareholders or otherwise violated state or federal laws.

If you have information that would assist KSF in its investigation, or would like to discuss your legal rights, you may, without obligation or cost to you, e-mail or call KSF Managing Partner Lewis Kahn (lewis.kahn@ksfcounsel.com) or KSF Partner Melinda Nicholson (melinda.nicholson@ksfcounsel.com) toll free at 1-877-515-1850.

About Kahn Swick & Foti, LLC

KSF, whose partners include the Former Louisiana Attorney General Charles C. Foti, Jr., is a law firm focused on securities class action and shareholder derivative litigation with offices in New York and Louisiana. KSF's lawyers have significant experience litigating complex securities class actions nationwide on behalf of both institutional and individual shareholders.

To learn more about KSF, you may visit www.ksfcounsel.com .