

NEW YORK--(BUSINESS WIRE)--The Law Offices of Vincent Wong announce that a class action has commenced on behalf of investors who purchased DFC Global Corp. (“DFC” or the “Company”) (Nasdaq:DLLR) common stock between January 28, 2011 and August 22, 2013.

Click here to learn about the case: <http://docs.wongesq.com/DLLR-Info-Request-Form-141>. There is no cost or obligation to you.

The complaint alleges that the Company misrepresented its compliance with government regulations and guidance regarding its lending practices. In particular, the complaint alleges that a) DFC issued to consumers high-fee predatory loans that had no reasonable means to be repaid; b) the Company rolled and refinanced loans continuously in order to delay or avoid defaults; c) the Company did not conduct affordability assessments on its customers; d) the Company understated its loan loss rates; and (e) as a result of the aforementioned, the Company’s earnings guidance for its 2013 fiscal year were inflated.

Shareholders of DFC have until January 21, 2014, to seek appointment as lead plaintiff. Your ability to share in any recovery doesn’t require that you serve as lead plaintiff.
