

NEW YORK--(BUSINESS WIRE)--The Law Offices of Vincent Wong announce that a class action lawsuit has been commenced in the USDC for the Central District of California on behalf of investors who purchased Quality Systems, Inc. ("Quality Systems" or the "Company") (Nasdaq: QSII) common stock between May 26, 2011 and July 25, 2012.

Click here to learn about the case: <http://docs.wongesq.com/QSII-Info-Request-Form-143>. There is no cost or obligation to you.

The complaint alleges that the Company made materially false and misleading statements and/or failed to disclose materially adverse factors regarding the Company's growth prospects, including its guidance for fiscal years 2012 and 2013.

On July 26, 2012—just three days after affirming its prior guidance—Quality Systems announced that its earnings per share had precipitously declined; as a result of this decline, the Company announced it was retracting its guidance. Upon this news, shares of Quality Systems fell from a close of $23.36 per share the prior business day to a close of $15.95 per share.

If you suffered a loss in Quality Systems you have until January 21, 2014 to request that the court appoint you as lead plaintiff. Your ability to share in any recovery doesn't require that you serve as lead plaintiff.
