About Equiniti

Equiniti is a business process services provider supporting approximately 1,600 of the UK's businesses and public sector institutions, including around half of the FTSE 100. Our core capabilities are centred on complex administration and payment solutions including money transmission, administration and customer interactions. This means we pay pensions, share dividends, salaries and perform administrative functions that involve regulation and high volumes of data.

We are the leading provider of shareholder services in the United Kingdom based on revenues and the number of underlying shareholder and employee records administered, providing services to more than 1,000 corporate clients and 17 million shareholders. We are the second largest provider of pension administration and software services in the United Kingdom and look after approximately 3 million pension scheme members. Our longest standing client relationship is 177 years.
