

STEVENSON, Md.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--The securities litigation law firm of Brower Piven, A Professional Corporation, has commenced an investigation into possible breaches of fiduciary duty and other violations of state law by the board of directors of The Hillshire Brands Company (“Hillshire” or the “Company”) (NYSE: HSH) relating to the proposed buyout of the Company by Tyson Foods, Inc. (“Tyson”).

On July 2, 2014, Tyson and Hillshire announced that they had entered into a definitive agreement pursuant to which Tyson will acquire Hillshire in an all-cash transaction valued at approximately $8.55 billion. Under the terms of the transaction, shareholders of Hillshire are anticipated to receive $63.00 for each share of Hillshire stock they own.

The firm’s investigation seeks to determine, among other things, whether the Company’s board of directors breached their fiduciary duties by failing to maximize shareholder value before agreeing to enter into this transaction, and whether Tyson is underpaying for Hillshire shares.
