eMaint Enterprises

, a leader in cloud-based maintenance management services, has made the 2013 Inc. 5000 list of the fastest growing private companies in the U.S. The 32nd annual Inc. 5000 list represents the fastest-growing private companies in the U.S. in 2013. The list's rankings are determined by each company's percentage revenue growth over a three-year span.

According to Eric Schurenburg, Editor in Chief of Inc. Magazine, "The Inc. 5000 was harder to get into this year than ever in its history." "As an Inc. 5000 honoree, eMaint Enterprises now shares a pedigree with Intuit, Zappos, Under Armour, Microsoft, Jamba Juice, Timberland, Clif Bar, Pandora, Patagonia, Oracle, and dozens of other notable recent alumni," says Schurenburg. "You are in some pretty impressive company - which is exactly where you belong."

"It is an honor to be recognized among the top privately-held companies in the country," eMaint CEO Brian Samelson said. "Our team has worked tirelessly to onboard new clients while successfully managing existing customer relationships, which has propelled the growth of our company. Being recognized at a national level is truly an honor that can be attributed to the eMaint team."

eMaint saw revenue growth of 42 percent in 2012 over the previous year, and 167 percent revenue growth in 2012 over a three-year span. eMaint's staff has more than tripled since the beginning of 2010. The 2013 rankings were announced today by Inc. Magazine. Companies will be honored at the Inc. 5000 Conference and Awards Ceremony on October 10 -12 in Washington D.C.
