

AKA Internet Marketing Selected as Costco Executive Business of the Month

Written by Australian Business

(PRLEAP.COM) Gilbert, Arizona (October 31, 2013) – AKA Internet Marketing is pleased to announce they have been selected as the Executive Business of the Month at the San Tan (Gilbert) Costco for the month of November. As a way to say thank you and show their appreciation, the company is offering discounts to Costco members throughout the month.

Company founder Anthony Kirlew stated, "We love Costco! It was an honor to have this opportunity and we hope that we can serve fellow Costco business members with their online marketing and lead generation needs. "In addition to offering special offers and discounts to the San Tan Costco members, the company is extending their offer to all Costco members throughout the month.

Along with the specials, the company is also offering several free resources including:

A Complementary (30 minute) Online Marketing Consultation
A Complementary 22 Point Internet Marketing Blueprint
Access to their free Internet Marketing & Social Media eCourse
Costco members can access these special offers throughout the month of November at <http://www.akaim.com/costco>

About AKA Internet Marketing
AKA Internet Marketing is a full service Web & Internet Marketing Agency that serves emerging businesses by implementing profitable strategies such as web design, search engine marketing, and social media consulting. The company is based in Mesa, Arizona - just outside of Phoenix - and serves clients all across the United States. For more information, visit their website at: <http://www.akaim.com>