

SOUTHFIELD, Mich., Nov. 1, 2013 /PRNewswire-iReach/ -- Epitec, a leading national technology services and staffing provider headquartered in Southfield Michigan, has again been named one of the 101 Best and Brightest Companies to Work For in the country by the National Association for Business Resources. In addition to their overall award, Epitec won a category-based Elite Award for excellence in Employee Enrichment, Engagement and Retention.

The Best and Brightest Companies to Work For award recognizes organizations that display a commitment to excellence in their Human Resources practices and employee enrichment. Organizations are assessed based on categories such as communication, work-life balance, employee education, diversity, recognition, retention and more. Epitec maintains above-average ratings in each category.

"We are proud to be awarded for our Human Resource practices at a national level for the third year in a row," notes Josie Sheppard, Epitec President. "We are also pleased to receive the Elite Award for Employee Enrichment, Engagement, and Retention."

"Our work force continues to be on the move. Epitec is proud of the 'Favorite Employee Experience' we offer each employee," adds Mark Ruma, Epitec Chief Operating Officer. "Talented employees join Epitec, work diligently, and then eventually leave Epitec; it is the nature of today's workforce. Our Human Resource team is responsible for enriching the employee experience to retain our talent and creating an easy way back to the Epitec for future employment opportunities. This award is recognition of their efforts."

The Elite winners are selected based on their overall high scores and are then named an Elite winner in their respective category. Epitec outranked all of the competing 101 companies in the category of Employee Enrichment, Engagement and Retention.
