

(PRLEAP.COM) VOCSO is very well known in the market for designing websites which are a perfect combination of innovation, technological superiority, practicality and class. The company has made a name for itself in development of Content Management System Websites, E-commerce websites, Web applications and the exciting world of Mobile applications. The company is completely focused on designing websites which are easy to use, look great and engaging to the user.

Mr. Manoj Parashar, the COO and co-founder of VOCSO says, "Our team of professionals will help customers understand the real importance of a website that isn't only presentable but designed professionally." All the clients of VOCSO will be thrilled by the fact that now, the best web design agency offers lifetime free support. The company which promises to take the client's business to the next level has raised the standard in their business by launching the lifetime free support.

Apart from being a web designing agency, VOCSO offers its expertise in various other fields such as Search Engine Marketing and Website Hosting. Previously the company used to offer three months of support after the completion of a project. However, now the company feels that its support has to be for a lifetime to its clients. The management finds that since the quality of websites which they develop is top notch, the chances that their support will be required will be less. "If good isn't simply enough for you then we are offering the best and unparalleled support services to our clients in the form of our new and exclusive life-time support program", according to Mr. Manoj Parashar. Having expanded from a small team into a full-fledged corporate house, VOCSO now assures that it will be able to offer its expert support to the clients within 24 hours and in most cases within a matter of few hours. The support team at VOCSO is extremely competent, curt and extremely accommodating as the company believes that client satisfaction is of utmost importance.

It is essential that the client keeps their signature with a link to vocso.com. The brilliant lifetime support from VOCSO expires if this signature is removed. Hence a client has to carefully understand the terms which are necessary to be able to get the required support from VOCSO.

With so many companies flooding the web designing market it is interesting to note that VOCSO is the only company to have come up with this genius idea of retaining their clients by providing them with unlimited support. Having been in the industry since 2009, the company with its vast client base is very keen to reach a lot more business enterprises and start ups which require such services and find it increasingly expensive to avail support from their web developers. VOCSO is known amongst its clients for being a very transparent organization which is highly accommodating. Their support system is just as efficient as any other service which they provide.
