There are many different Samsung TV's that will be displayed during the sales. Abigscreenhdtv.com has listed all the information for each TV for customers to view. Customers will be able to easily click over to Amazon from the website to see all the prices on each of the TV's. Any of the TV's listed would make a great gift for someone in the family.

According to Abigscreenhdtv.com, the Samsung TV's come in a variety of sized screens. Customers can choose anywhere from 32-inch screens to 65-inch screens. There are Smart TV's, which can be used to surf on the internet. Some of the TV's come with great features such as "Smart Hub," which allows users to either choose movies to watch or to connect with others on Facebook. The Samsung Smart HDTV has a program called, "Allshare Play," which allows users to stream content to the TV from another external device, like a user's smart phone.

According to the website, all these TV's prices have been lowered for the upcoming Cyber Monday events. Customers can come to the website and click on the TV of choice and go to Amazon to see the prices. "Any of these Samsung TV's would be a great buy for anyone wanting to either buy a new TV or as a gift," says an Abigscreenhdtv.com representative.

All the Samsung TV's that are listed on the website come with free shipping and a limited warranty.
