Also featured is the Kindle Fire HDX 7" Tablet. It has a fast processor, the latest graphics engine, and Dolby audio. Apps, websites, and tasks run much faster than before and the graphics are of high quality, while readers can take advantage of its power management system to enjoy up to 11 hours of reading, web-surfing, music, and more. With automatic power down, the battery can last up to 17 hours.

The Kindle Fire HDX 8.9" Tablet offers high pixel density, color accuracy, and brightness. It's 2,560 x 1,600 resolution yields 4 million pixels providing a lifelike image. Dynamic image contrast optimizes color on a pixel-by-pixel basis according to how much light there is. Images and videos can be seen even outdoors. Also, the buttons and charger port are placed better to make the device easier to use.
