

Ashford Global IT Makes Generous Donation to the Cat Protection Society

Written by Australian Business

---

Ashford Global IT, a leading provider of IT training services, has made a generous donation of employee time, money and supplies to the Eustis, Florida-based Cat Protection Society. The company challenges other IT training providers to join the fight against homeless pets by making similar donations to their own local animal shelters.