

Mission3 is now arivis

Written by Business News

Mission3 is changing its name to arivis in coordination with its parent company arivis, AG. arivis will combine Mission3's cloud-based Clireo product and regulatory services as well as its enterprise GlobalTrack regulatory information management (RIM) product with arivis AG's high-resolution, 3D+ image management solution to provide a high-value portfolio of solutions for life science, academic research, and healthcare clients.