

Development of effective system for water distribution already impacting over a million inhabitants

Written by Business News

Sunday, 15 February 2015 07:35

The technological achievement of the public center is applied in 11 cities and enables effective monitor and control of the allocation of liquid from a central command, as well as reducing the time and cost of failure maintenance.

Read more <http://www.alphagalileo.org/ViewItem.aspx?ItemId=149790&CultureCode=en>